

A & L Window Warranty

Your A & L Windows and Doors are warranted against defects arising from faulty workmanship for a period of 7 years from the date of delivery to site subject to the following conditions:

- The product has been installed in accordance with Australian Standards AS2047 (as amended or replaced), recognized building practice and A & L windows installation recommendations
- The product has been installed and maintained in accordance with A & L windows recommendations
- The product has not been subject to misuse, physical abuse or neglect
- A & L Windows accepts no responsibility for glass breakage (except for faulty workmanship or materials)
- Moving Parts which wear out as a result of normal use are warranted for three (3) years
- This warranty is limited to the repair or replacement of the faulty product at the discretion of A & L windows but does not extend to the installation or re-finishing of a replacement product. There is no liability for any other claims, damages or costs whether special, consequential or otherwise.
- Only repairs carried out by A & L windows personnel or authorized agents are covered by this warranty
- Claims under this warranty must be made within one month of the defect arising in the product
